STATE SUNSHINE AND SHADOW.

HERE is how the Constitutional Convention votes away the people's money: President Clay, $5 per day for presiding in addition to his per diem as delegate; Secretary Poore, Assistant Secretary Martin and Reading Clerk Stone, $10 each per day; Sergeant-at-arms Tyler and Doorkeeper Haley, $8 each per day; Janitor Todd Hall, $6 per day; Mrs. Day, the librarian, $300; Assistant Librarian Frank Kavanaugh, $300; the Revs. Blayney, Penick, Darsie, Henderson, Neville, Young and Taylor, $75 each for prayers; Pages Blackburn, Riley, Chapman, Dorman, Newton, Long and Kendrick, $3 each per day.

THE Inter-Collegiate Oratorical contest came off at the Opera House at Lexington last Friday night, and John M. Stevenson, representing the Georgetown College, proved to be the victor. Samuel C. Stoffer, Kentucky University; Samuel W. Wilson, Centre College; Franklin H. Kean, Central University, and C. E. Norman, of the A. & M. College, were the other contestants. The faculties of the several colleges forbid future contests.

WILLIAM MONROE, aged 68, and Mrs. Mattie Atfred, aged 48, eloped from Fayette county to Maysville and were married by Judge Phister. When asked if he would take Mattie to be his wife, Monroe answered in emphatic words, "That's just what I propose to do." At the conclusion of the ceremony he surprised those present by exclaiming: "Peace at home, pleasures abroad, love your wife, and praise the Lord."

At Louisville, recently, Senator Carlisle was interviewed regarding references to himself as a Presidential candidate. He said: "Everybody knows I'm not a candidate. I appreciate the high compliment paid me. I don't know whether the time has come for the Mason and Dixon's line to disappear from politics or not."

JOHN W. YERKES, of Danville, and, by the way, a gentleman of considerable ability, was recently mentioned as a prospective candidate for Governor on the Republican ticket, but he says he will not accept the nomination if tendered him. Dave Colson will therefore probably "carry the flag" of his party.

PROFS. PULLIAM and Van Leer, who flogged the sixteen University students at Richmond for cutting up on April 1, are being tried before County Judge Chenault for assault and battery under warrants sworn out by some of the enraged parents.

THE ashes of Judge Henry J. Stiles, of Louisville, who recently died, and whose remains were cremated in Cincinnati, were taken to Hopkinsville, and, in the presence of relatives, were deposited in the grave of his first wife.

THE President of the State Farmers' Alliance, Hon. T. T. Gardner, is a straight Democrat, and thinks the order will support the Democratic nominees for State offices, at least the Democratic members of the order.

THE State Board of Equalization adjourned last Thursday. The increase in taxable property in the State over last year is $26,300,000, making the total taxable value of the State nearly $537,000,000.

THE action of the Constitutional Convention last week leaves the Capital at Frankfort, but provides that it may be removed by a two-third vote of the Legislature.

THE Blue Grass Blade, Charlie Moore's Prohibition paper, after a suspension of a few weeks, will again be issued Saturday, and Charlie says will come on time hereafter.

THE receipts from the Charity ball, held at Lexington on Thursday night of last week, amounted to $2,500. The money is for the benefit of the Protestant Infirmary.

GOV. BUCKNER has fixed Wednesday, June 10, for the execution of Len James, at Fulton, for the murder of a man named Dolan in 1889.

THERE is no clew to thief who stole $2,500 worth of jewelry at Frankfort from Mrs. Chapman Coleman, wife of the Secretary of Legation at Berlin.

C. C. GOODWIN, a merchant at Esculapia Springs, has assigned to A. H. Parker, of Vanceburg, for benefit of creditors.

HENRY JOHN and Miss Laura Greer, of Frenchburg, eloped and were married at Jeffersonville, Ind., Thursday week.

AT Russellville, seven prisoners escaped from jail by cutting a bar in a window. Four of them are murderers.

JOHN MONT, an inventor of Mt. Vernon, attended the Patent Centennial celebration at Washington last week.

THE Frankfort people on Friday night last tendered the Constitutional delegates a reception at the Capital Hotel.

MRS. GEORGE SNYDER, aged 99 years, died at New Haven one day last week.

Neuralgic Persons
And those troubled with nervousness resulting from care or overwork will be relieved by taking Brown's Iron Bitters. Genuine has trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper.

OVER THE WORLD IN A WEEK.

—Fruit is said to be frozen in portions of Tennessee.

—Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, has resigned his seat in the United States Senate.

—The Board of Education of Upper Sandusky, O., ordered that hereafter teachers must desist from dancing.

—Gov. Fowle, of North Carolina, died suddenly last week. Lieutenant Governor Thomas has been sworn in as Governor.

—Four conspirators who tried to get hold of the late Loring A. Robertson's millions, in New York, have been indicted.

—While dancing and singing over the result of the recent election, Wm. H. Braniff, a salesman, fell dead in a Chicago saloon.

—P. T. Barnum, the veteran showman, died last week at his residence in Bridgeport, Conn., at the advanced age of 81 years.

—Mrs. John Oliver, of Morgan county, Ind., committed suicide last week because of her sixteen-year-old granddaughter's downfall.

—Andrew Carnegie, the millionaire, was arrested and brought into court at Pittsburgh for refusing to obey a summons to appear as a witness.

—Indictments will be found against several of the leaders of the mob who attacked the parish prison and lynched the Italians at New Orleans.

—Thomas Leonard, proprietor of a shooting gallery at Chicago, was stabbed and killed by an unknown man who had refused to pay a nickel for shooting.

—Taylor Hambley cut Joe Townsend's throat, killing him instantly, near Huntsville, Ala., the result of a quarrel over 25 cents Townsend owed Hambley.

—Gen. Horace Porter has been chosen to deliver the oration on the occasion of the breaking ground, on the 27th inst., for the memorial to Gen. Grant in New York.

—The Attorney General of Indiana says that all parsonages are subject to taxation, unless forming part of the church building or immediately contiguous thereto.

—Lycurgus White, a farmer living in Fayette county, Ohio, owns a dog that has killed 452 rats, 187 mice, 6 moles, 4 ground squirrels and 3 minks during the past year.

—Gen. Lucius J. Gartrell died at his home in Atlanta, Ga., last week. He was at one time member of the United States Congress and also of the Confederate Congress.

—William Wallace, a powerful lunatic, is loose in the corridor of the jail at Jeffersonville, Ind., and no one dares to enter it to secure him. He has nearly beaten two guards to death.

—Miss Lizzie Rogan has been made an active member of the Storm Engine company at Birmingham, Conn., being the first woman admitted to active service in the fire department in that State.

—At Lime Ridge, Penn., the Silver Spring Quarry company discharged every Italian in its employ. Ever since the lynching of the Italians at New Orleans the Italians had been contributing $2 weekly each to the Mafia fund.

—An investigating committee finds gross neglect and carelessness on the part of Naval Constructor Feaster, Master Shipwright Williamson and Master Shipfitter Webster in repairing the United States steamer Alert. All have been discharged.

—Patrick Brennan, aged 102 years, died recently at his home in Hurley, Wis. He had perfect health and an excellent memory. Brennan voted the day before his death, and has a record of voting for the last twenty Presidents, since John Quincy Adams.

—The St. Louis Globe-Democrat (Republican) says: "We would not like to see the Major secure the Presidential nomination until he reforms his tariff views, but if Blaine should decline to run McKinley may have as good a chance in the convention as anybody."

—Last week Jesse Oglesby was standing on the outer guards of the wharf boat at Helena, Ark. He dropped a dollar piece from his pocket, and it was rolling to the outer edge of the boat. He ran to pick it up, but fell into the river and was drowned before assistance could reach him.

—In the Minnesota Senate the McHale bill prohibiting tight on the stage, or the wearing of any garment which shows the nether female limb, has been recommended to pass. Its author, the Chairman of the Judiciary committee, supported the bill in a speech which was a terrible arraignment of the modern stage. The Senate humored him in the bill, and even added a section, as follows: "Whoever shall display any immoral or immodest piece of statuary exhibiting the female form wholly or partly nude, or shall display any figure of Venus without petticoats, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor."

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. 4y1

VOICES FROM ABROAD.

Wants The Herald.

EVERTON, DADE CO., Mo. }
April 2, 1891. }

EDITOR HAZEL GREEN HERALD—Dear Sir: As my home up to the last few weeks has been in your county, I would like to have THE HERALD. You will find One Dollar enclosed for which send to my address. I wish all my friends in that county success, and may the Lord be with them for I can't as I will make my home here in future. I find that Missouri is a nice country, and if any of the rest of you want to try the West, just come ahead. Wheat looks fine and prospects for corn are good.

Yours truly,

ROSA BELLE BYRD.

Thinks a Great Deal of It.

ROSE HILL, VA., April 8, 1891.

MR. COOPER—Enclosed you will find One Dollar to pay my subscription to the HAZEL GREEN HERALD. My paper has not been coming regularly for some time; last week I received no paper, and this week but half of my paper came.

Yours truly, HARRIET C. EWING.

[This lady evidently thinks more of THE HERALD than most of our readers, as she is paid up to December 25, 1892.]

Still They Come.

WACO, Mo., April 8, 1891.

MR. COOPER—Find enclosed One Dollar to renew my subscription. I am a little tardy, but have been too busy to go to the office. Thanks for the tobacco seed. Yours truly, J. R. COX.

Another Wants It.
